Participant P1

CSE, 2nd Year — Private University A

Q1 — Study Routine

"It's really hard to study strictly according to a routine. But I am a CSE student, so there is academic pressure, so at the end of the day I have to sit with my books at least 2–3 hours."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"My sleep schedule is erratic. I go to bed very late at night and wake up late in the morning. I don't sleep more than 5–6 hours overall."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"I spend a lot of time on social media. Every time I'm a little free I reach for my phone during the day. Between watching YouTube Reels and scrolling, I lose more than 6 hours a day through Facebook."

Q4 — Employment Status

"Yes, I give private lessons to pay my own costs."

Q5 — Stress Level

"My mental stress is quite high right now. To be honest, I can't finish my daily tasks on time and the academic pressure seems even heavier."

Q6 — Mental State

"I feel depressed often. I have constant anxiety about my career — what I want to do in the future, where my life is going toward; thinking about these things makes me restless."

Q7 — Exercise

"No, I don't really do any exercise."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"I am currently at peak burnout. Trying to manage everything leaves me feeling completely drained."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I try to attend the university fairly regularly; my attendance is about 70–80%."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"My sleep quality is very poor. I cannot sleep peacefully and I don't feel fresh at all when I wake up in the morning."

Participant P2

Master's CSE, 1st Year — Private University B

Q1 — Study Routine

"I don't have as much time to study since I started my Master's. I try to study at least 3–4 hours a day after finishing my office work, but it's hard to find time."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"I'm a bit conscious about my sleep. Since I have a high-pressure job, I try to sleep for 6–7 hours to keep my body fit."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"I usually spend about 2–3 hours on social media. But part of my job involves monitoring students, and sometimes that keeps me online for over 6 hours."

Q4 — Employment Status

"I work full-time remotely at Programming Hero. Coding all day just wipes me out."

Q5 — Stress Level

"There is stress, but I can handle it. As my job and studies are in the same sector (CSE), my work actually helps me academically."

Q6 — Mental State

"I don't really have depression as such. Sometimes I'm a bit worried about my future career, but I'm so busy with my office and studies that I really don't have time to suffer from depression."

Q7 — Exercise

"Honestly, no. After working and studying all day, I'm so tired that laziness takes over. During my university days there is a little bit of physical movement, but otherwise I'm just at home."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"Medium. The combination of the office and my Master's makes me feel tired sometimes, but I get along somehow."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I have pretty good attendance, around 90%. I find motivation because I love programming, and because my job is remote I adjust my shifts to attend classes regularly."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"Average. I am normally able to sleep peacefully, but on days I work at night in the office I have a little difficulty sleeping."

Participant P3

CSE, 2nd Year — Private University A

Q1 — Study Routine

"Despite all the academic pressure, I really don't study that much. I try to study at least 3 hours regularly, otherwise things will get bad at exams."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"I have a bad habit of staying up late. When I go to bed it's really late, and I have to get up in the morning for university. I'm averaging about 5 hours of sleep."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"My phone sucks up all my precious time. I just scroll through Facebook and Instagram all day — at least 4–5 hours a day is spent on social media."

Q4 — Employment Status

"No, I'm not working at any job at the moment. The pressure from studies is already too much; if I got a job, my life would be much worse."

Q5 — Stress Level

"My stress level is moderate. If I study a little more right before exams and make sure I understand the material in regular classes, I don't have to put too much additional pressure on myself."

Q6 — Mental State

"Sometimes I feel a little down and have no motivation to do anything, but it's nothing serious — it gets better after a few days."

Q7 — Exercise

"I don't really exercise. The walking I do commuting to and from the university is about it."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"I am at medium burnout. I haven't completely lost motivation, but I'm quite busy with my current workload."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I try to go regularly; it stays around 70–80%. But on days when there are fewer classes or it feels boring, I just don't go."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"Average — not too good, not too bad. If I got into the habit of going to bed early, I would probably sleep better."

Participant P4

3rd Year Bachelor — Private University A

Q1 — Study Routine

"I make it a rule to try and study 2–3 hours every day. When exams are near, I increase my study time."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"I sleep pretty well, about 7–8 hours. Since I'm tired from work all day, I fall asleep as soon as I get into bed."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"I don't use social media a lot — an average of 2–3 hours during breaks at work or before going to bed at night."

Q4 — Employment Status

"Yes, part-time at Unimart."

Q5 — Stress Level

"Mental stress is not very high. I finish studying the class materials with my friends in class, so I don't have a lot of extra pressure when I get home."

Q6 — Mental State

"I sometimes have a little concern about my future and career, wondering how I'll get it all straightened out — and that's all."

Q7 — Exercise

"Yes, I exercise every morning regularly. I also play football — around 3–4 hours of physical activity a day between sports and the gym."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"Medium. I feel I have a lot to study at times, then I get inspired again. Sometimes I'm a little sad or down."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I try to go to the university regularly; my attendance is about 70–80%."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"Alhamdulillah, my sleep is very good — I get deep sleep."

Participant P5

Master's, 1st Year — Private University C

Q1 — Study Routine

"I am very serious about my Master's. I have to study for 5–6 hours a day. Besides that, I am doing research work with a professor, so I have to put a lot of emphasis there as well."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"Alhamdulillah, I sleep very peacefully. I have made it a rule to sleep 7–8 hours a day."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"I use my phone mostly for necessary things — important conversations or looking up information related to my studies. Maybe about 1 hour on Facebook or Instagram, just for fun."

Q4 — Employment Status

"Yes, I am a Teaching Assistant (TA) at my university, and I do research work at the same time."

Q5 — Stress Level

"My mental stress level is moderate. If I study in a systematic way, it isn't much of a problem."

Q6 — Mental State

"Sometimes I panic a bit if I make a mistake on a task or can't solve a problem; otherwise everything is fine."

Q7 — Exercise

"No, honestly, I never exercise."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"My burnout level is quite low. I am handling everything well, and my results are also going well."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I have very good attendance — I am present for 95–100% of my classes."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"Very good. I have a proper routine; I sleep early and wake up early."

Participant P6

2nd Year Bachelor — Private University A

Q1 — Study Routine

"I don't really study my school subjects a lot. Right now I'm a little busy with IELTS, so I'm giving all my time to it. I only look at university studies for 1–2 hours or more."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"I sleep an average of 5–6 hours. I watch a lot of web series at night, so I stay up late, and then I have to get up in the morning for university — I'm out of sync with my sleeping schedule."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"Between watching web series online and Facebook, more than 6 hours a day go on my phone."

Q4 — Employment Status

"No, I'm not working any job at the moment."

Q5 — Stress Level

"A lot of pressure from studies. Getting used to everything has been getting very difficult for me recently."

Q6 — Mental State

"Yes, I am often depressed. I have a lot of tension about the future — I don't have skills, I don't have good grades, I don't know what's going to happen."

Q7 — Exercise

"Yes, I go to the gym regularly and play football — around 2 hours a day."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"I have a very high level of burnout. I have no motivation to study, and I am always stressed out about my results and abilities."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I go to the university fairly regularly; attendance is around 70–80%."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"Very poor. I don't get enough time to sleep, and even when I get into bed, sleep does not come easily."

Participant P7

Final Year Bachelor — Private University D

Q1 — Study Routine

"The pressure from the university is very high right now. I have to make an effort to study on average 6 hours daily."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"Sleep is the most important thing in my life. I always sleep 7–8 hours per day."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"I don't really do social media unless I have urgent work. If I'm really bored, I might go on Facebook and Instagram for 1–2 hours."

Q4 — Employment Status

"No, the pressure of study is too much — I don't even have the thought of getting a job in my head right now."

Q5 — Stress Level

"My mental stress is very high. If I don't keep my studies up, there is a lot of coursework that piles up regularly, which becomes impossible to cover later."

Q6 — Mental State

"Sometimes I get a little anxious or depressed about my career."

Q7 — Exercise

"Yes, I spend about 1 hour a day in the university gym."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"I have a very low level of burnout. I have a strict routine, so I don't actually get tired."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"My attendance is nearly perfect — I'm present for 90–100% of my classes."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"I sleep very well. I wake up completely refreshed."

Participant P8

Bachelor, 2nd Year — Private University A

Q1 — Study Routine

"I don't study like I used to. I can barely manage to spend about 2 hours a day with my books."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"I usually sleep 5–6 hours. I stay up late, so I don't get enough time to sleep."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"I'm on my phone all day, scrolling through Facebook and playing PUBG more than 6–7 hours per day."

Q4 — Employment Status

"I am not doing any job right now, but I am searching for one."

Q5 — Stress Level

"My stress level is medium. I know if I study I can do well, but I just can't seem to get the studying done."

Q6 — Mental State

"I'm often depressed. No study, no outdoor activities — it all adds up and makes me feel like there is really no future in Bangladesh."

Q7 — Exercise

"No, I don't do any exercise at all."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"The burnout is very high. I can't find any motivation to study, and thinking about these things depresses me more."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I try to attend the university on a regular basis; my attendance is around 70–80%."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"My sleep is not good at all. I sleep very late and have to wake up in the morning, so my sleep is thoroughly unsatisfying."

Participant P9

Final Year Bachelor — Private University A

Q1 — Study Routine

"I try to study fairly regularly for 2–3 hours, but I increase my studying at exam time."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"I strictly sleep 6–7 hours every day."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"I am on Facebook 4–5 hours a day. Whenever I get a little free time I watch Reels — it's a bad habit of mine."

Q4 — Employment Status

"No, I am not working at the moment."

Q5 — Stress Level

"The pressure is medium. If I study a little seriously, it is possible to balance everything."

Q6 — Mental State

"I am often tense about my career, and this occasionally makes me depressed."

Q7 — Exercise

"I do sports sometimes, but not all the time."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"Medium. I suddenly get motivated to study and then suddenly it is completely gone."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I never miss class — I attend almost 100% of my classes."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"Yes, I sleep quite well."

Participant P10

3rd Year Bachelor — Private University D

Q1 — Study Routine

"The pressure of studying is huge. I have to study just to pass — a minimum of 2–3 hours per day."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"I don't really get to sleep. I stay up very late at night; I don't get more than 5 hours."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"I'm on my phone all day. Watching Reels and web series takes more than 6–7 hours a day."

Q4 — Employment Status

"No, I am not doing any job at present."

Q5 — Stress Level

"Mental stress is very high. I study for many hours, but it seems like the syllabus is never-ending."

Q6 — Mental State

"I am depressed all the time. There is the academic pressure, plus I don't see a good future for the country in the current situation."

Q7 — Exercise

"No, I don't have any time at all. Sometimes I play a little sport."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"I am very burned out. I have zero motivation to study."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I try to keep my attendance completely full, because if my attendance drops, my CGPA will fall further."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"Average. I just somehow get myself to sleep a little — that's it."

Participant P11

1st Year Bachelor — Affiliated College A (National University System)

Q1 — Study Routine

"Studying at the National University means there isn't that much exam pressure. Sometimes if I feel like it, I open my books for half an hour or an hour."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"I sleep a lot. I sleep at night and then take a nap in the afternoon — 7–8 hours altogether."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"I'm always on my phone. I go on Facebook, YouTube, and Instagram and lose track of time looking at Reels — six to seven hours a day, just like this."

Q4 — Employment Status

"I do not have a job, but I have two private tuitions at home."

Q5 — Stress Level

"There is no academic pressure on me whatsoever."

Q6 — Mental State

"My mind is not very good. I study at the National University and my CGPA is bad. I am not finding any direction for my future, so I'm pretty depressed."

Q7 — Exercise

"No, I don't exercise."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"I am very burned out. I have absolutely no motivation for my education."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"The National University has a new rule now — if you don't have 70% attendance, you cannot sit for exams, so I am forced to attend regular classes."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"I sleep well, but I go to sleep very late at night."

Participant P12

Bachelor, 2nd Year — Private University A

Q1 — Study Routine

"I really don't like studying. I study with a lot of effort for close to 1 hour per day."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"My sleep is very poor — I only get the chance to sleep about 5–6 hours per day."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"Any time I get a little time I start scrolling. Between breaks at work and coming home, altogether over 5 hours go toward my phone."

Q4 — Employment Status

"Yes, I am a salesman at 'YARA'."

Q5 — Stress Level

"The academic pressure is a lot for me. I totally cannot juggle the job and my studies together."

Q6 — Mental State

"I am always depressed. When I think about my career, I only see darkness — I have neither a good job nor good results."

Q7 — Exercise

"Yes, I sometimes go to the gym to keep my body fit."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"Very high level of burnout. I have no more interest in my studies."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I try to be regular; I am present for about 60–70%. But on days I'm really depressed or sick, I just don't go."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"My sleep quality is very bad. I am a very light sleeper, and it stops at the slightest noise."

Participant P13

3rd Year Bachelor — Private University E

Q1 — Study Routine

"The pressure of academics is at its peak right now. I have to study 2–3 hours a day on average, otherwise I will end up retaking every single course."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"I get about 6–7 hours of sleep on average."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"I used to use it a lot more but am slowly cutting it down. But then you start watching Reels on Facebook and Instagram and suddenly 3–4 hours have passed."

Q4 — Employment Status

"Yes, I am working part-time at 'Mermaid Group'."

Q5 — Stress Level

"Mental stress is a little high. It's quite difficult for me to study alongside a job."

Q6 — Mental State

"I sometimes feel depressed about my financial situation."

Q7 — Exercise

"Yes, I work out regularly for 1 hour at the gym."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"Burnout is medium. Sometimes I lose track of my studies, but later, thinking of my future, I try to concentrate again."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I attempt to be present for 60–70% of the classes, but because of my job I sometimes miss a few."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"Yes, Alhamdulillah, I am sleeping fine."

Participant P14

1st Year Bachelor — Private University E

Q1 — Study Routine

"There is a lot of pressure at the university. To balance my studies, reading 4–5 hours a day is a must."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"I generally sleep 5–6 hours. I tend to sleep late at night and have to wake up early in the morning for university, so my sleep doesn't get properly satisfied."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"I spend a lot of time on social media. Recently I've developed an addiction to Pakistani dramas — at least 6 hours a day is just spent watching my phone screen."

Q4 — Employment Status

"No, I'm not working any job right now."

Q5 — Stress Level

"Mental stress is average. If I study a little bit regularly, everything is manageable beautifully."

Q6 — Mental State

"I feel depressed often. I am afraid about my career, and on top of that I don't have any ECA (extracurricular activity) skills."

Q7 — Exercise

"No, I don't do exercise."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"I sometimes feel a moderate level of burnout from the academic pressure."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I try to make it to most of my classes; my attendance is around 70–80%."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"My sleep quality is very bad. First, I do not get enough time, and second, I have a habit of staying up late."

Participant P15

3rd Year Bachelor — Private University F

Q1 — Study Routine

"Normally I only cram before exams. During regular semester days I study 2–3 hours, but I pull all-nighters before midterms and finals."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"I average around 5–6 hours of sleep and my sleep pattern is fairly irregular due to deadlines for papers."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"I spend around 4–5 hours a day on social media, mainly scrolling Facebook, YouTube, and Instagram."

Q4 — Employment Status

"Yes, I am a part-time tuition tutor 3 days a week to support my personal expenses."

Q5 — Stress Level

"Too much stress. Balancing academic assignments, tuition work, and semester exams feels overwhelming."

Q6 — Mental State

"I often feel anxious and burned out, especially when several project deadlines come together."

Q7 — Exercise

"I play cricket sometimes on weekends, but I do not have a regular physical activity routine."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"I am very burned out. I am tired all the time, physically and mentally."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I go to class about 80–85% of the time, because attendance carries marks."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"Not good sleep quality. I often wake up tired and find it hard to sleep early."

Participant P16

Master's, 2nd Year — Public University A

Q1 — Study Routine

"It's a Master's program, so I have to study for 2–3 hours day to day to finish the syllabus."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"I sleep on average about 6–7 hours."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"I don't really use social media that much. If there's something important I log in; otherwise I scroll for a maximum of 1 hour a day."

Q4 — Employment Status

"Yes, I am working as a full-time teacher at Kazi Abdul Hamid High School."

Q5 — Stress Level

"Mental stress is very high. Balancing teaching with continuing my Master's studies is becoming quite difficult."

Q6 — Mental State

"I sometimes feel a bit low about the future. Thoughts about what will happen or which sector I'll go into keep spinning in my head."

Q7 — Exercise

"Honestly, after all day, I have no energy to exercise."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"Burnout is at a medium level, but despite all this pressure I try to keep my studies going well."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I try to attend 70–80% of classes at university usually."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"Alhamdulillah, my sleep quality is quite good."

Participant P17

1st Year Bachelor — Private University G

Q1 — Study Routine

"Studying is intense at our private university. I have to establish the rule of studying 4–5 hours every day because our grading system is very strict."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"I sleep 6–7 hours every day as a good habit, but because of my bad habit of staying up late, it is not always the case."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"My biggest addiction is scrolling through social media, especially K-Dramas. It takes an average of 4–5 hours each day."

Q4 — Employment Status

"No, I am not doing any job now."

Q5 — Stress Level

"Mental stress is at a medium level. As a first-year student there is pressure, but I'm handling it pretty well."

Q6 — Mental State

"Yes, I am often very depressed about life and my studies."

Q7 — Exercise

"No, I haven't started any exercise routine yet."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"Burnout is medium. Dealing with all the hassle, I am trying to at least keep my studies going."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"My attendance is almost perfect — I am in 90–100% of my classes."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"Average — it could be better if I didn't stay up late at night."

Participant P18

2nd Year, B.A. — Private University H

Q1 — Study Routine

"I normally try to study 3–4 hours, but during exam times I study more than 5 hours when the pressure is on."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"My sleep situation is very bad — not more than 5–6 hours. I watch web series all night and then have to rush to university in the morning."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"Social media is consuming all my valuable time — at least 6 hours a day scrolling and watching web series."

Q4 — Employment Status

"No, I'm not working anywhere now."

Q5 — Stress Level

"With the coursework and expectations, I'm under a lot of mental strain."

Q6 — Mental State

"I get a lot of depression sometimes about exams, and sometimes about how I'll start my own startup."

Q7 — Exercise

"Yes, I try to regularly go to the gym."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"Burnout is very high. With this daily routine and my mental condition, I am completely worn out."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I go to the university quite regularly; I am present for about 90–100% of classes."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"My sleep quality is very bad. I don't have enough time — staying up late and then waking up early makes the mornings feel very draining."

Participant P19

2nd Year Bachelor — Private University E

Q1 — Study Routine

"I don't really like studying. To somehow pass, I drag myself to sit with my books for 2–3 hours."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"My average sleep is 6–7 hours. On days I have university, I come back in the afternoon and take another 2–3 hour nap."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"I'm on social media a lot — just scrolling through Reels on Facebook and Instagram, about 6 hours a day."

Q4 — Employment Status

"No, I do not have any job."

Q5 — Stress Level

"As a second-year student, the stress is at a medium level right now — it's a bit manageable."

Q6 — Mental State

"Very high depression. I am always tense about what I'll do in life and whether I'll really have a good career in Bangladesh."

Q7 — Exercise

"No, I don't exercise at all."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"My burnout level is very high. I can't study or learn new skills, and I can't balance either."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I try to attend the university regularly; my attendance is 70–80%."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"I sleep very well, and this helps to keep my mood cheerful."

Participant P20

3rd Year Bachelor — Affiliated College B (National University System)

Q1 — Study Routine

"I don't study at all. If I really feel like it, I sit with my books for up to 1 hour a day. There is no real study pressure, so it just doesn't get done."

Q2 — Sleep Duration

"I sleep well, at least 6–7 hours a day."

Q3 — Social Media Use

"I have my phone in my hand all day — I spend more than 6 hours just watching Reels on YouTube and Facebook."

Q4 — Employment Status

"No, I'm not doing any job anywhere."

Q5 — Stress Level

"There's no direct pressure from study, but because I don't study, there is an internal stress that is always working in my mind."

Q6 — Mental State

"I'm depressed all day long. I study at the National University, and there's no sign of a career ahead."

Q7 — Exercise

"No, I don't do any physical exercise."

Q8 — Burnout Level

"Burnout is very high. I have no motivation for studying, and I am also doing very poorly in my results."

Q9 — Class Attendance

"I don't want to go to classes at all. Still, sometimes I go — I am present maybe 40–60% of the time."

Q10 — Sleep Quality

"My sleep quality is pretty good — that's the one thing I'm ahead on."
